

ZAKHELE NSELE

Businessman | Business Financial Expert | Thought-leader

Meet Zakhele Nsele

Zakhele Nsele is the visionary behind Nsele and Associates Consulting - driven by a passion for development and change, Nsele founded the Company. Positioned as the Managing Director, he leads a dynamic team of experts across all financial spheres of business, embodying the ultimate business solution.

Mr Zakhele Nsele boasts a successful 10-year career in South Africa's financial industry - exercising expertise in practical financial solutions for small and medium businesses. Through his tenure in the industry, Nsele has gained expertise in taxation, accounting, business advisory and consulting.

Nsele holds a cognisance of global innovation and awareness of the South African landscape - and as such, is pragmatic about the use of financial skills/intelligence/knowledge to uplift South African small and medium enterprises and the skillset of financial practitioners. Nsele Skills and Development is an extension of his commitment to the empowerment of businesses and individuals through the facilitation of financial skills and development programs.

Long term vision requires the patience to invest in the future - Zakhele Nsele is the bold mind invested in people for the development of South African business.

Leadership and Mentorship

Philosophy

Nsele holds a pragmatic approach to leadership, bearing cognisance of the holistic development of any business and people. He prioritises educating the individual giving them key financial tools for the betterment of the individual, their business and their practice. As such, Nsele Skills and Development takes care in providing specialist training programs that emboldened, empower and transfer practical financial skills.

Core Values

- PEOPLE - Nsele holds a people-centred approach to his leadership - believing that an investment in people is an investment in South Africa's development.
- DISCIPLINE - Zakhele Nsele takes seriously a commitment to the advancement of skills to ensure efficient aptitude and readiness within the financial sector.
- PERFORMANCE - Zakhele Nsele upholds excellence in the execution of all pursuits, envisioning success with all endeavours, clients, students and mentees.

Education

Mr Zakhele Nsele holds a BTech Degree in Accounting and Taxation, and a National Diploma in Accounting from Durban University of Technology; and an Advanced Diploma in Accounting Science from the University of South Africa. Additionally, he is a member of the South African Institute of Tax Professionals (SAIT); and South African Institute of Business Accountants (SAIBA); SARS Recognised Controlling Body for SARS Tax Professionals in South Africa and also a member Durban of Commerce and Industry; the recognized world-class Business Chamber; and a united voice of business in Durban. As the founder, of Nsele Skills Development, Nsele works in partnership with FASSET to facilitate financial skills development programs in KwaZulu Natal.

Nsele and Associates Consulting

Nsele and Associates Consulting is a proudly black owned accounting practice offering South African businesses and professionals financial services solutions - ranging from secretarial services; tax services; accounting and financial reporting; business consulting; as well as training and development. Nsele and Associates Consulting boasts a financial skill and efficacy that is key to building trust and confidence in the business financial infrastructure of the clientele we serve.

Based in Durban KwaZulu Natal, the Nsele and Associates Consulting team is equipped with qualified and expert tax practitioners and accountants; business consultants and finance professionals who are put to task to comprehend and analyse business financial requirement and compliance regulations. In doing so, our company eagerly seeks out opportunities and positions of leverage to the advantage of our clients. Nsele and Associates Consulting is a company dedicated to building financial structures that allow for innovation and growth, rendering us 'your ultimate business solution'.

Nsele and Associates Skills Development Division

Nsele and Associates Consulting is a firm that is conscious of the national economic landscape; and as such, eager to extend the scope of our impact to driving education-based initiatives that are people centred and premised on upliftment by establishing our Nsele and Associates Skills Developments division. Nsele and Associates Skills Development is an accredited black-owned skills and development training company aptly able to deliver training and skills development to small businesses and individuals. Prioritising the transfer of skills through development and training, this division of Nsele and Associates Consulting endeavours to empower entrepreneurs; coach and mentor small business owners and individuals; and provide short courses and training programmes and learnerships.

Nsele and Associates Skills Development exists to deliver a transfer of skills through development and training. Nsele and Associates Skills Development endeavours to empower entrepreneurs; coach and mentor small business owners and individuals; and provide short courses, training programmes Internships and learnerships.

Nsele and Associates Skills Development division through discretionary grants internships programmes has an impressive record implementing projects in education, training and development industry funded by various Sector Education and Training Authorities like FASSET, TETA, CETA etc. A proudly wholly black owned skills development company, Nsele and Associates Skills Development has handled skills development and training projects whose value is over R10 million and a total of 162 learners, the majority of which have already secured permanent jobs positions.

Awards and Affiliations

- South African Institute of Business Accountant (SAIBA)
- South African Institute of Tax Professionals (SAIT)
- Sage South Africa
- Services SETA
- FASSET SETA
- South African Revenue Services (SARS)
- Companies and Intellectual Property Commission (CIPC)
- Department of Labour
- Sage Authorized Reseller

“

Economic development encompasses real people envisioning themselves as active agents in their own growth and development.

Zakhile Ntete